The Intercontinental Chamber of Commerce (ICC) has been the organization that motivates, organizes, connects, and drives business development in Houston, Texas, and worldwide for 40 years. ICC members range from small entrepreneurs to Fortune 500 companies, which consist of thousands of employees. The ICC business model is proactive in providing our members with networking and tangible business development opportunities. Besides having well-established relationships with city, county, state, and federal entities, ICC has Houston offices in The Woodlands and Galleria, and partner offices on every continent in the following countries and regions: Canada, China, Mexico, Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, Africa, and Australia. These exciting developments present numerous business opportunities to our members both domestically and abroad.
